While in the area of Blue Mist Grove and Cloverleaf, I noticed a laser light being pointed at my patrol vehicle. I saw 4 juveniles, 3 males and 1 Female where the light was coming from. 3 males immediately began running away and I tracked them back to the above address. I contacted a parent of one of the males. 2 of the male juveniles were admitted to pointing the laser at cars, but stated that the 3rd male was the one doing it. The 3rd male and female were no longer on site, having just left upon my arrival. I informed the 2 males of the dangers and legal repercussions of their actions. They apologized and I left them to their parents discretion.
