3/24/2026	10:34:00 AM	Chipped Arrow Way	Darrin	Suspicious Activity	Suspicious Incident
While conducting a vacation check at the home, an alarm could be heard sounding from inside. While walking the perimeter of the home, I noticed a large water spot on the stucco in the back of the home. Moisture could also be seen in one of the windows of the basement and along the foundation in two locations. The owners were contacted by phone. The owner provided a garage door code for WPS to enter and check the home. Inside I found the master bathroom toilet had a major water leak which appeared to come from where the water line enters the toilet. Water had most likely been spraying out for quite some time. The fire alarms were sounding and water covered the entire floor of the upper level bathroom, master bedroom carpet and master closet. I proceed down to the basement and discovered that the lower level had water under the carpets, in the bathroom and in multiple bedrooms. The ceiling had major water damage in several rooms and had collapsed in one bedroom. Water was also in the storage room. The owner asked that I shut off the water to the house and the main power at the breaker box to prevent a fire. The home was secured. BWC available.
